

A vibrant still life composition featuring a variety of fresh fruits. In the foreground, there are several slices of cantaloupe with their characteristic orange flesh and green rinds. Interspersed among the cantaloupe are bright orange slices of oranges. To the right, there are several slices of ripe yellow bananas. The background is filled with more cantaloupe and oranges. Several butterflies, including a prominent orange and black monarch, and a dragonfly are scattered throughout the scene, resting on the fruit. The entire scene is set against a dark, rich red background, which makes the colors of the fruit and insects stand out. The text is overlaid in a large, white, serif font, centered across the image.

2nd Chronicles 14:07 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.
