

A close-up photograph of several white lilies with bright yellow centers and green leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a garden or field setting.

Zechariah 06:01 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.
