

A close-up photograph of a cluster of white azalea flowers. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The petals are a soft, clean white, and the centers show hints of yellow and green. The leaves are dark green and glossy. The background is a blurred red and white pattern, possibly a fence or a wall.

Luke 18:07 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?
