

Jeremiah 46:24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

A photograph of a sloth and its cub resting on a bed of smooth, light-colored rocks. The sloth is the larger, darker animal, curled up on the right side of the frame. The cub is the smaller, lighter-colored animal, curled up on the left side. The background consists of more rocks and some green foliage, including a large green leaf in the bottom right corner.
