

A close-up photograph of vibrant pink flowers, possibly cyclamens, with lush green foliage in the background. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing yellow centers. The greenery consists of fine, needle-like leaves and larger, dark green leaves.

John 18:32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.