

A close-up photograph of a dense field of colorful foliage. The leaves are primarily green with prominent purple and magenta variegation, particularly along the veins and edges. The leaves have a slightly serrated or scalloped appearance. The background is filled with more of the same plants, creating a rich, textured look.

Proverbs 12:27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.
