

A photograph of a garden bed featuring several purple grape hyacinth plants with long, green, blade-like leaves. The plants are situated in a bed of brown mulch, bordered by a grey concrete curb. In the background, a portion of an asphalt road and the lower parts of several parked cars are visible. The text is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font.

Acts 18:27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:
