

A sunset over the ocean with silhouetted rocks in the foreground. The sky is filled with dramatic, dark clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, casting a golden glow. The water in the foreground is dark and textured with small waves. The overall mood is somber and majestic.

Ezekiel 25:13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.
