

A close-up photograph of a garden. The foreground is dominated by a large, vibrant purple pansy flower. Behind it, several bright yellow pansies are in bloom. The background is filled with dense green foliage, including small, rounded leaves and some purple flowers. The lighting is bright, creating a high-contrast scene with deep purples and bright yellows against the green leaves.

Exodus 01:07 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.
