

A close-up photograph of a vibrant red rose with green leaves in the background. The rose is the central focus, with its many petals showing a rich, slightly darker red hue towards the center and a lighter, almost pinkish-red towards the edges. The petals are layered and ruffled, creating a full, rounded shape. The background consists of several dark green leaves with serrated edges, some showing signs of being eaten or damaged. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals and the veins on the leaves.
