

A long, narrow, dark rock formation protrudes from a body of water. The rock is covered in dark, wet-looking vegetation or moss. Water is cascading over the rock, creating a waterfall effect. The background is a blurred, dark blue-grey water surface.

Genesis 28:10 And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.