

A close-up photograph of two roses. The rose on the left is a vibrant orange color with many layers of petals, showing some yellow at the center. The rose on the right is a pure white color, also with multiple layers of petals. In the background, there are green leaves and several unopened rose buds on a stem. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

Luke 19:02 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.