Ecclesiastics 07:11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.
