Matthew 06:28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow;
they toil not, neither do they spin:
