

A scenic view of a river flowing through a forest. The water is turbulent and white with foam as it flows over dark, mossy rocks. The surrounding trees are covered in autumn foliage, with shades of green, yellow, and orange. The lighting is soft, suggesting a late afternoon or early morning setting. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

Psalm 130:7 Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.
