

The background of the image consists of numerous purple, lanceolate leaves, likely from a plant like Tradescantia virginiana, which are densely packed and slightly out of focus, creating a textured, naturalistic backdrop. The leaves have a vibrant purple hue with some lighter, almost white, variegation or veins. The lighting is soft, highlighting the edges and veins of the leaves.

Acts 07:52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted?
and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:
