

The background of the image is a close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of purple flowers. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing distinct yellow centers. The colors range from deep magenta to a lighter, almost white-purple hue. The text is overlaid on this background in a white, serif font.

Numbers 26:43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those that were numbered of them, were threescore and four thousand and four hundred.