

A close-up photograph of a stone fountain. The fountain is made of dark, textured stone blocks. At the top, a circular stone cap with a central opening is visible. Water is flowing from this opening down a narrow channel into a shallow, rectangular stone basin. The water in the basin is clear and reflects the surrounding stone. The background is a wall of similar stone blocks.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right;
he shall surely live.
