

Isaiah 28:21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

A close-up photograph of a cluster of bright pink flowers, likely a species of Salvia, with green foliage in the background. The flowers are in sharp focus, showing their delicate structure and vibrant color. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, creating a natural and serene setting for the text.
