

The background of the image features several vibrant pink carnations with ruffled petals and green foliage. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some in sharp focus and others blurred in the background. The overall scene is bright and natural.

John 08:10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?