Genesis 41:57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn ; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.
