1st John 01:09 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
