

A close-up photograph of a large number of geraniums. The plants are densely packed, with many bright pink flowers in full bloom and some red flowers interspersed. The leaves are a vibrant green and have a characteristic rounded, scalloped shape. The overall scene is a lush, colorful display of these flowers.

Revelation 19:05 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.
