

A close-up photograph of water splashing over dark, wet rocks. The water is clear and bubbly, with many small droplets and ripples. In the foreground, there are large, out-of-focus green leaves, likely from a plant or tree, which frame the bottom and right sides of the image. The lighting is bright, highlighting the textures of the water and the rocks.

Genesis 02:04 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,
