

A close-up photograph of a small waterfall. Water is cascading over several layers of dark, wet, and mossy rocks. The water is clear and creates a soft, white foam at the base. The surrounding rocks are dark brown and black, with some green moss and small plants growing on them. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the water and the rocks.

Psalms 31:10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.
