

A close-up photograph of a bouquet of flowers. The bouquet features several vibrant pink roses in various stages of bloom, interspersed with clusters of tiny purple baby's breath flowers. The arrangement is filled with lush greenery, including eucalyptus leaves with their characteristic silvery undersides, fern fronds, and a large, textured green leaf that resembles a pine cone or a scale-like structure. The background is softly blurred, emphasizing the textures and colors of the flowers in the foreground.

Ephesians 06:21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: