the castle, and bade that he should be

A scenic view of a paved path leading to a lake, framed by a large, bright yellow sunburst graphic. The path is on the left, bordered by a dark green hedge. To the right is a black metal fence, and beyond that is a calm lake reflecting the sky. The background shows trees and a building in the distance under a clear sky.

Act 22:29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

Act 28:18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death
in me.
