Word Study for --- MEMPHIS

A cluster of yellow wildflowers with green stems and leaves grows in a rocky, gravelly area. The flowers are small and bright yellow, contrasting with the greyish-brown ground. The background shows more rocks and some sparse vegetation.

Hos 09:06 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant [places] for their silver, nettles shall possess them:
thorns [shall be] in their tabernacles.
